option A: „We continued down the snowy landscape, which shined in the sunrays. A little bit later, a view of the valley opened up to us between the bare trees. The next time, that we came back here, was in the summer, when the whole landscape looks quite different. There are leaves on the trees and as far as eye can see, there is a ton of flowers.“

option B „First, we trampled down the snow with the snowshoes on our feet and then we started digging a hole in the wall. We dug deeper and deeper until we managed to carve out the entire inside of the ice dwelling. It was interesting to see that the temperature inside remained one degree above zero, even though there was a thirty degree frost outside.“

emotional, theatrical speech portraying more characters option A: „Charles, I agree under one condition, you must stay calm.“ „Calm... What do you mean?“ „You know very well how you lost your self-control the last time.“ „Self-control...? I don't get you at all“ I was offended. She smiled patiently. „You do remember! I didn't know whether you'd be able to leave.“ „You're exaggerating, it was just too much for me, that's all.“

option B „I can't believe it!“ I got angry. „Yes, it's him,“ my friend nodded. „He's a bastard!“ „What?“ „That's right.“ „That's weird, I don't know him for too long but I like him. I like him a lot.“ My friend raised his eyebrows. „You're probably the only one,“ he said bitterly. „He's the biggest bastard, I've ever known.“
